THERE'S "BLUD" ON THE MOON

DONAHEY BLAMES SPEAKER SWAIN

Laments Defeat of Mooney State Accounting Bill.

MAY MAKE GOOD HIS THREAT

Says He Will Submit the Measure, Which Passed the Senate, to the People Through the Initiative and Referendum—Governor Cox Springs
to the Defense of Workmen's Compensation Act.

Columbus, O., May 1.—State Auditor A. V. Donahey issued a signed statement declaring war on "the gang which wants to transact state business through their private check books," and charging the defeat of the Mooney state accounting bill to Speaker Charles L. Swain of the house of representatives.

Donahey wrote Governor Cox last week threatening to submit the measure to the people through the I. and R. unless the legislature passed it. It passed the senate Monday, but was not handed down for passage in the house.

Speaker Swain said that he "never saw the bill after it passed the senate."
"The legislature adjourned without passing the Mooney bill, which required that every cent of state revenue should go into the state treasury and that all state accounts should be audited and inspected by the auditor of state," says Donahey's signed statement.

"Certain state officials and boards will continue to handle hundreds of thousands of dollars of the state's money, deposit it in favorite banks at a less interest than the state receives on treasury funds and disburse it on private checks without any knowledge of the treasurer or auditor of state."

"In my opinion the people of Ohio have Charles L. Swain, speaker of the house of representatives, to thank for the defeat of this just measure. It passed the senate with only two votes against it, but Swain refused to let it come to a vote in the house. All along the forces of invisible government were against the measure."

"But I am not through with the gang who want to transact state business through their private check books. I shall submit the measure to the people through the initiative and referendum."

Governor Cox's Threat.

Governor Cox's first statement of plans following adjournment of the legislature was that he was prepared to take the stump and fight the reported referendum on the workmen's compensation law, enacted several weeks ago.

"Certain powerful interests say they will have the law submitted to a vote of the people under the referendum,"
said the governor. "Well, I'm ready for them. I'll make a state-wide canvas to defeat their plans. I have no fear of the result. In the constitutional election last September the workmen's compensation proposal received one of the largest votes of any of the 42 submitted. And the new law is the greatest humanitarian measure passed in many years. If I mistake not the people are more enthusiastic for the principle than ever before."

Labor Has a Kick.

Reviewing the assembly's work, so far as it affected labor, the executive board of the Ohio Federation gave out a signed statement declaring the "Democratic party has failed to carry out its platform pledge to the people"

BUNCH OF MOTHERS VISIT THE CITY HALL

BIG TURN OUT AT PATERSON

Strikers' Children In May Day
Demonstrations.

TAKEN LATER TO NEW YORK

Distributed Among Families of Members of the I. W. W. and Will Be Cared For Until After the Paterson Strike—Help From Poor Department Spurned by the Striking Silk Workers—Haywood at Baltimore.

Paterson, N. J., May 1.—A mothers' committee of five striking weavers visited the city hall, intent on finding out what Mayor McBride was going to do in his official capacity for the children of the silk strikers. Behind the determined looking mothers trailed a line of men with babies in arms and small boys and girls walking hand in hand or clutching their mothers' skirts.
The committee did not find the mayor in, but it had a conference with Poor Master Thomas O'Neill, after which the women reported back to a strikers' meeting at Turn hall the result of their mission, and all decided they didn't want city alms administered in the usual way.

Children of the strikers took part this morning in the big May Day demonstration here. After the parade a large number of them were conveyed in auto trucks to New York, where they participated in the big May Day turnout there. Following the parade they will be escorted to the labor temple, where they will be distributed among the I. W. W. families who have offered to take care of them until after the Paterson strike.

The original plan of Miss Elizabeth Gurley Flinn to send mothers with their children to see Mayor McBride, who objects to the strikers leaving daughters of the strikers leaving town, was vetoed by Miss Flinn herself when she learned that the mayor would not be there. The mothers' meeting at Turn hall was a big one.

What Would the Suffragettes Do If They Met the King Like This?

Mors by American Press Association.

If the militant suffragettes had a chance to catch King George of England and his daughter, Princess Mary, out riding like this it is very probable there would be a big story for the papers. But it is not likely that they will get anywhere near the king, for he is closely guarded wherever he goes, even when out riding for exercise, as shown in the picture. He has been particularly well guarded since the recent renewal of the suffragette outbreaks.
Princess Mary is especially fond of riding and often accompanies her royal father on such centers.

NICHOLS FOR CHIEF JUSTICE

Columbus, Ohio, May 1.—Democrats generally accepted the tip that Lieutenant Governor Hugh L. Nichols will be the new Chief Justice of the Supreme court, a position created by the General Assembly under the constitutional amendment. The governor has not yet indicated definitely who his selection will be.

It is said here that his appointment will enable Governor Cox to avoid entanglements in the temperance question. Judge William E. Scofield, of Marion county, had been advocated for a place on the Supreme Court bench, and the promotion of Judge Johnson to the Chief Justiceship has been hinted. Recently, however, the wet and dry issue was injected when Wayne B. Wheeler attacked Scofield.

Republican Solons Discuss Plans
at a Conference.

Columbus, O., May 1.—Following the final adjournment of the Ohio legislature, Republican senators and representatives held a secret conference.
Over half of the 49 Republican members of the assembly attended. Senator M. A. Broadstone of Greene presided.

There was general discussion of how to rehabilitate the Republican party. There was no dissent from the view that, to bring this about, it was essential to persuade to come back into the party the Progressives who left it last summer.

A motion was made by Representative Oscar E. Dier of Mahoning, and was declared carried that chairman Harry Daugherty and William Parmenter and the members of the state executive and central committees of the party be asked to step aside and permit a reorganization of the party along lines which would appeal to those Republicans who had joined the Bull Moose party. Others wanted to demand also the resignation of Chairman Walter F. Brown of the Progressive state executive and central committees. It was pointed out that such a demand could not well be made by a gathering of Republicans.

The outcome of the conference was the authorization of the appointment of a committee to induce, if possible,
the retirement of the present members of the state organization of the Republican party and to propose a plan of reorganization, and to invite the co-operation of the Progressives
in this reorganization.

BILL SHUTS OUT THE JAPANESE

Wording of New Measure Pleases

WILL BE PASSED BY ASSEMBLY

Omits Specific Mention of "Ineligible to Citizenship" and Places Exclusion From Ownership On Broad Ground of Reciprocal Treaty Provisions—Governor Announces Termination of Conferences.

Sacramento, Cal., May 1.—Three minutes after the legislative conference with Secretary of State Bryan had ended, the state senate was called to order and the anti-alien land bill drafted by Attorney General Webb was introduced as an amendment to the pending Birdsall bill. The bill was then sent to the printer, and it is understood it will be passed immediately by both houses and will be signed by the governor. This new bill omits specific mention of "ineligible to citizenship" and places exclusion from ownership on the broad ground of reciprocal treaty provisions.
As Japan does not permit any alien to own land or to carry on business there, the Japanese will hence be barred from land ownership or from any majority ownership in corporations doing business in California.

The governor and his followers are congratulating themselves on the wording of this new bill, but Dr. David Starr Jordan says it is discriminatory and will be objectionable to Japan. His position is that an alien is the ward of the nation and that no

INVITATIONS HAVE BEEN EXTENDED TO MANY NOTED ORATORS

Half Score of Speakers of National Fame Have Been Asked to Appear Here in June and Deliver Addresses at the G. A. R. Encampment.

A dispatch from Washington, D. C., states that Senator Kern, of Indiana, has been asked by Congressman Post on behalf of the G. A. R. Encampment committee, to speak here during the forty-seventh annual state encampment of the G. A. R., June 16 to 20.

Senator Kern has been asked to deliver the principal address on Tuesday, June 17th, and the dispatch states that he will probably accept.

The committee on invitations has also extended invitations to a number of other prominent men, including Lafollette, Beveridge, Pomerene, Burton, Ollie James, Congressman Gardner of Maine, Corporal Tanner, of Washington, D. C., and will try to have Foraker deliver an address Wednesday afternoon, June 18.

Others will probably be added to the list, until the number of national speakers will exceed that of any previous encampment.

It is not yet known whether Secretary of State Bryan will be here. The complete program will be arranged within a short time.

The various committees are making plans and looking after the work in their departments, and the movement for handling the big event is rapidly assuming a business-like aspect.

The publicity committee has been doing some good work, and as a result between two and three hundred Ohio newspapers are carrying liberal mentions of the big time planned here in June.

Already more than ordinary interest has been aroused in the coming encampment, and a mammoth crowd is expected here each day of the event.

The invitations of the local committee are in addition to the splendid array of speakers secured by the department itself. Governor Cox has been invited by both the Department Staff and the local committee.

Brilliant Opening Of Stutson's Store Occurs This Morning

Wealth of Lovely Flowers From Many Staunch Friends, and Large Crowds of Delighted Patrons Are Leading Features of Reopening of Magnificent Store of Frank L. Stutson.

An event of pre-eminent interest in the business world of Washington C. H., was the opening of the Frank L. Stutson Department store in the new Masonic Temple Thursday.

From the constant stream of visitors, by no means confined to the feminine sex, and from the wealth of flowers which greeted the eye from every direction, the opening savored hardly less of a social event. The new store was for the entire day the Mecca of every one on the streets and brought out many busy people too eager to see it to wait a more convenient season.

The large number attending the opening and the magnificent flowers sent in great number with congratulations and good wishes, were alike eloquent tributes to Mr. Stutson and to the mammoth business establishment which is of such inestimable value to this community.

The splendid new store, far more beautiful and metropolitan than ever before, was a radiant garden of bloom. Tall floor vases filled with snapdragons, carnations and ferns, superb baskets of American Beauty roses, carnations, sweet peas and roses of different hues, jardines and crystal vases from which nodded great clusters of lilies, snapdragons and a profusion of carnations of every shade, it was all an array of floral beauty in accord with its brilliant setting and bespoke, beyond words the gratitude of the community to Mr. Stutson for his valiant overcoming of what had seemed well nigh insurmountable difficulties and his continuing to give to our city the prestige of his business and his business reputation.

Not a visitor but expressed in glowing terms unstinted admiration of the superb new store. Withal, the incompleteness of the building, the interior showed little evidence of it. An immense assortment of spring stocks was arranged with excellent taste, the beautiful new plate glass show cases revealed rich satins, silks and tissues, in exquisite shades, gorgeous trimmings, filmy laces, fetching novelties and dress accessories, and throughout the entire store the passerby found nothing but what was beautiful and alluring.

The admirable arrangement of the store, its enlarged capacity and increased light, all evoked freely expressed comment and it was the consensus of opinion that, had as been the circumstances leading to the present store, it has now attained a perfection far beyond any of Mr. Stutson's former stores.

Among the business firms and friends sending flowers were: The Dahl-Milikan Wholesale Grocery, the Washington Gas and Electric Co., the Masonic Temple Co., the H. G. Coffman Lumber Co., Craig Bros., Jess Smith, M. S. Daugherty, the Ballard-Ford Hardware Co., the P. Hagerty Shoe Co., the Fayette Lumber Co., the employees of the Stutson store, the Washington Daily Herald, the Ohio State Register, W. J. Galvin, Sales Advertiser, the Record-Republican, C. A. Gossard and Co., Barnett's grocery, S. S. Cockey, H. S. E. Parrott, D. H. Barchet, Buck Floral Gardens, C. E. Lloyd, Walter W. Hamilton, Will E. Dale, W. A. Tharp & Co., B. F. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Fullerton, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Howat, Mr. and Mrs. George Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Anthony, Mr. and Mrs. C. Howard Griffith.

Mr. Stutson appreciated to the fullest extent the floral offerings as well as the verbal congratulations of many friends.

Child Suffers Serious Fracture

While playing about the premises Wednesday afternoon, the three-year-old son of John Bryant of East Court street fell and fractured his right leg near the hip, inflicting a very bad injury from which it will require weeks to recover.

Physicians were summoned and it was found necessary to incise the fractured limb in a plaster of paris cast to insure proper mending of the fracture.

Arrangements have now been completed for the 1913 commencement of the Washington C. H. After the moving pictures of the local horse show are run at the Colonial again tonight, where they drew a large crowd last night, they will be sent to Louisville, Ky., for a ten-day exhibit in that city, and from Louisville the film will be sent to other points in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky.

Other films from the same exposure have been sent broadcast over the land in the Gaumont Weekly.

The local pictures are unusually distinct, but unfortunately the real show could not be taken on account of insufficient light.

OHIO HORSE SALES COMPANY WILL HOLD A SERIES OF FAIRS

Red Letter Fair Circuit Has Been Established and Race Meets and Fairs Will Be Held in Many Towns and Cities, Including Dayton---Headquarters of the Company Here.

Although originally organized to conduct combination sales at the sales pavilion in this city, the Ohio Horse Sales company, with headquarters here has branched out into greater lines and this year will hold a series of county fairs and race meets at a number of surrounding towns and cities, including a mammoth race meet at Dayton during the week of July 4th.

Last year the company, of which Mr. W. J. Galvin is general manager, successfully and profitably conducted fairs at Wilmington, Circleville and Jamestown, but this year the number of fairs will be increased, and better fairs and race meets held in a half dozen different Ohio cities.

The series of fairs will be known as the Red Letter Fair circuit, and no effort or expense will be spared to make each fair and race meet a from the minute it opens until the time it closes.

Mr. Galvin went to Wilmington Wednesday and closed negotiations for the fair grounds at that point, and the company will hold a huge July 4th meeting and a fair sometime in September. A deal for the Jamestown fair was closed recently.

Thursday he closed a deal whereby one of the greatest race meets in the history of Dayton will be held during the week of July 4th. Dayton is in the Ohio Racing circuit, and the racing will be equal to that on any track in the Buckeye state this year, according to present plans.

Negotiations for the Circleville fair grounds have not yet been closed, but the fair at that place was so pleasing to those who attended that an urgent request has been made for the company to hold another fair this year, and in all probability Circleville will be in the Red Letter Fair circuit, and the fair will be a real Red Letter one.

It is the intention of the company to have all employees and assistants in appropriate uniform and carry all tents they use with them. The agricultural and art departments will not be overlooked, splendid music will be furnished, and a wide selection of midway attractions will be offered, so that outside of the racing there will be plenty of attraction and entertainment for the throngs.

Mr. Galvin has had eight years of successful experience in the holding of fairs, and those associated with him are all men of wide experience in the same line, so that the success of each undertaking is virtually assured from the very beginning.

Novel Ideal Meets With Approval

C. A. Gossard and Co., jewelers, are introducing a new departure that will undoubtedly prove a boon to Washington society and its entertainers. The new plan is to rent handsome matched silver, knives, forks and spoons, for entertaining purposes and with this in view the C. A. Gossard Co. has installed 50 dozen pieces of flat silver for the accommodation of those desiring it.

Few women who entertain elaborately possess sufficient silver for the numerous courses of a dinner or for large functions and no table but is improved by silver that matches throughout. By means of the Gossard rental of silver there will be the double advantage of having the set match and of not having to borrow from the neighbors.

It is an idea that will meet with approval and add to the convenience of those entertaining.

It Has Become a Tragedy

News reports which are generally conceded to be authentic contain the startling information that in the city of Berlin, Germany last year over seven thousand dogs were eaten by the people.

The poorer classes were driven to the revolting dog meat substitute because beef could not be bought in the markets of the city for less than sixty-eight cents per pound.

This condition of affairs is due primarily to the frantic and feverish expenditures of the German government to maintain its great army and navy.

The German people are staggering along hopelessly under a crushing load of taxes, direct and indirect, in order that the Kaiser may boast a larger, better drilled and better equipped army and navy than his cousins in purple, who are at present occupying the thrones in the neighboring nations.

In France too, and other nations of Europe the conditions of the people are on a par with that of the German people.

If not like the Germans, driven "to the dogs" by the frightfully high taxes on everything, to keep on a war footing when there is no need to do so, they contribute an equal amount of suffering and endure an equal number of hardships and deprivations in order to keep "in the swim".

The expenditures for war in times of peace by the civilized nations of the world has long since passed the ridiculous stage and has become a real tragedy.

The suggestion made some time ago that if these war expenditures continued and keep on increasing at the same rate, a general war involving all the nations of Europe would be about the only means of furnishing relief to the overburdened people, seems to be more reasonable than was at first supposed.

When American people read of conditions in Continental Europe they are inclined to receive with more serious consideration world-wide peace suggestions.

Something, it is evident, will have to be done, or something will have to happen before long to stop these war expenditures which seem now to have developed into almost insanity of the nations.

It is all well enough in times of peace to prepare for war, but real war now would be a welcome relief from peace conditions.

Beleaguered people in times of war suffered scarcely more than the poorer classes of German people are suffering today in times of peace.

And the utter folly of it all.

There is really but little more excuse in these enlightened times for war between civilized nations than there is for a fist fight between individuals. There is no reason, save possibly that weakness which people are fast outliving, of placing themselves and their property under the control of a king, why civilized nations could not create a court to adjust all national differences. There are still the petty jealousies, the ambitions and the envy among monarchs which leads to war, but the great civilized nations are beginning to hedge about their monarchs so that their human weaknesses may not plunge nations into war.

In the meantime though, the people have forgotten apparently the costly show which is maintained.

Divorce Is Destroying American Home Life

By Justice JOSEPH MORSCHAUER
Of the Supreme Court of New York

I AM utterly opposed to divorce as a solution of marriage problems. Social conditions in America would be MARVELOUSLY IMPROVED in two generations if divorce were abolished.

DIVORCE STRIKES AT THE HOME, WHERE IS DEVELOPED THAT SPIRIT OF COMRADESHIP WHICH IS THE MAINSPRING OF ALL GENEROUS ACTIONS AND IS THE BASIS OF GREATNESS IN INDIVIDUALS AS WELL AS IN NATIONS. THINK OF THE CHILDREN WHO IN THEIR TENDER YEARS ARE DEPRIVED OF THE ADVICE AND PROTECTION OF THEIR PARENTS BY THE SUNDERING OF THE MARRIAGE TIES!

Even the lower animals don't leave their offspring until they can take care of themselves.

I believe that the law of separation should still remain to protect, for instance, the women married to men who are unfaithful or brutal. But one must remember that when people marry the usual result of that marriage is children, who are INNOCENT PARTIES TO THE TRANSACTION and who are entitled to the greatest consideration.

The reason more people are not opposed to divorce is that a divorce gives temporary relief to the parties in a particular case, but the GREAT EVIL IT WORKS IN THE END IS NOT CONSIDERED.

Poetry For Today

THE VOICELESS.

We count the broken lyres that rest
Where the sweet wailing singers
slumber,
But o'er their silent sister's breast,
The wild flowers who will stoop to
to number?

A few can touch the magic string,
And noisy Fame too proud to win
them—
Alas for those that never sing,
But die with all their music in
them!

Nay, grieve not for the dead alone
Whose song has told their hearts'
sad story—
Weep for the voiceless, who have known
The cross without the crown of glory!

Not where Leucadian breezes sweep O'er Sappho's memory-haunting
billow,
But where the glistening night dew
weeps
On nameless sorrow's churchyard
pillow.

O hearts that break and give no sign
Save whitening lip and faded
tresses,
Till Death pours out his longed-for wine
Slow-dropped from Misery's crushing presses!

If singing breath or echoing chord
To every hidden pang were given,
What endless melodies were poured,
As sad as earth, as sweet as heaven!

—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

If the piece measures more than 72 inches the carriers may refuse to accept it. Widths in cases may run to 90 inches.

Miss Christabel Pankhurst, safe in her retreat in Paris, France, from the strong arm of British justice, recently submitted to an interview in which she described her version of the beginning of militancy in English politics: "Militancy began when one suffragette took to attending political meetings and asking questions. We were very correct at first. We did not dream of interrupting. We waited quite patiently until the end of the meeting. When we got our chance it was only to be ignored or smiled at. Some began to interrupt which led to ejections. That was the real beginning. Our activity along that line has done what no amount of talking could ever have achieved."

Miss Pankhurst declares that money subscriptions to the cause has never been so great and that militancy has not lost suffrage a single whole-hearted supporter, and statements they have forfeited sympathy are totally false.

The U. S. Bureau of Education reports that Buchtel college, a successful institution of 40 years standing, has been offered to the city of Akron, Ohio, for use as a municipal university. The college finds it has trebled its attendance in the past 10 years without sufficiently increasing its endowment and now proposes to transfer the entire plant, valued at $100,000 to the city without restrictions of any kind. If the offer is accepted it will be known as the University of Akron, although the name Buchtel college is to be retained for the liberal arts department just as McKean college is a part of the University of Cincinnati.

Despite all remarks to the contrary, there must be a steady return to the poultry yard in the United States. The egg production in 1912 was 1,750,000,000 dozen, as compared with 450,000,000 in 1880. The exports last year 19,000,000 were almost as great as the entire output 35 years ago.

Texas derived 2,400,000 tons of cotton seed from her crop last season, and the mills ground up about 70 per cent of it for oil according to the Ft. Worth Cotton Oil company. Deitz owns 20 acres of land near Guyandotte. During the flood the land was covered with water and when it receded left an immense haystack for the use of Deitz. Resting on top of the stack where some one evidently had piled them for safety were beds, bed clothing, chairs, tables, two stoves, dining room, parlor, kitchen furniture, with cooking utensils and linen, all snugly buried in the hay. Unable to learn the owner's name, Deitz furnished a home with his new possessions.

GOES TO NEW JERSEY TO MAKE SPEECHES

Wilson to Urge Jury Reform and Confer With Leaders.

Newark, N. J., May 1. — President Wilson will come to New Jersey tomorrow to make speeches on the necessity for jury reform and to confer with the leading Democrats in regard to measures to be taken to whip the legislature into line for the special session which Governor Fielder has called for next Tuesday.

Despite the earnest appeals of Mr. Wilson and his successor, Governor James Fielder, the legislature failed to pass a jury reform measure. A bill introduced in the senate embodying the views of Mr. Wilson passed that body, but it came out of the assembly with an amendment tacked on that the senate refused to accept. This amendment provided that the reform law be submitted to a referendum and that the number of those voting for it must equal 30 per cent of the number of votes cast for governor at the last election.

Governor Fielder is having prepared a bill which will take the power of drawing grand and petit jurors out of the hands of the sheriffs and place it in those of a bipartisan commission named by the presiding supreme court justice in any county. These commissioners are to be removable at the pleasure of the justice.

This man is evidently in a hurry. He is going away from here.

You never can get some men into action without a powerful stinging. You can hardly say this man is having a bully time, although the bull may be. It is all to the point of view.

Anyway, the man is going some, and THAT IS GOOD FOR HIM, or is it if he goes fast enough. He has developed a burst of speed for once in his life.

It is good to get into action.

It is good for the individual and even better for the community.

THIS TOWN WANTS TO GET INTO ACTION. That means we as individuals want to get into action for the town. We want to get a move on.

The census shows that this country is increasing in population at the rate of nearly 2,000,000 per year.

These people have to settle somewhere.

WHY NOT HERE?

We may not be able to get the whole 2,000,000, but even a fraction will help.

Why not go after them?

We believe this is a good town else we would not live here.

Why not tell others and let them

DIVORCED FATHER TO BE SUED BY WIFE'S MOTHER

CONTEST PROBABLE

Toledo Woman May Sue New Yorker For Possession of Grandchild.

New York, May 1.—Charles A. Henderson, a broker, who was divorced in 1911 by Beatrice Golden Henderson, later the wife of Fritz Augustus Heinze, got the custody of his 8-year-old daughter Katherine under a legal order which, it was said, may result in a contest by the child's grandmother, Mrs. Mary Golden of Toledo, O., from whom the child was taken by her father last Thursday. The child's mother died suddenly on April 2, just before a final decree divorcing her from Heinze was signed, and was reconciled with her husband just before she expired. A dispatch sent from Toledo on Saturday said that Henderson had come there to the home of Mrs. Golden, the child's grandmother, and under pretext of taking the child to buy her some candy had brought her back to New York against the wishes of her grandmother.

Postoffice Inspectors at Columbus Make an Important Arrest.

Columbus, O., May 1.—Thomas Longo, 28, was arrested by W. B. Robinson, a postoffice inspector. A federal warrant will be issued upon the recommendation of Assistant District Attorney Burns, alleging fraudulent use of the mails. Postoffice officials believe the arrest will unravel numerous instances of forgery and passing of worthless checks which have annoyed the Columbus police during the past year. Comparison of checks issued by Longo and those being held by local police show great similarity of handwriting. The prisoner claims to be the son of A. San Francisco, May 1.—Secretary of State Bryan was given a very busy day here by Panama exposition directors and leading Democratic organizations. He was taken out to the Presidio where there was a review of all troops on the Presidio. From the Presidio Secretary Bryan was taken over the exposition site and shown the progress that has been made to date. Here the secretary broke ground for the palace of agriculture. Mr. Bryan expressed great pleasure over his visit to San Francisco.

The stage was crowded with children. Miss Flinn announced that the children wouldn't be taken to the city hall owing to the absence of the mayor, and then suggested the appointment of a committee of five. The committee, on arriving at the city hall, was directed to the poor master's office in the basement. The women and children pushed after the five mothers, but only a comparatively few got into the office. The poor master informed the committee that if the children were in want the city would be glad to take care of them in the usual way after an investigation had been made into each case.

William D. Haywood, Carlo Tresca, Patrick Quinn, Adolph Lessig and Miss Flinn were arraigned before Judge Klepper in the county court on indictments returned in connection with their strike operations. All pleaded not guilty and were released, their original bonds being continued. On application of Prosecutor Michael B. Lann the judge set May 7 for the trials.

Haywood left for Baltimore, where he took part in the May Day demonstration today.

New Bill Not Pleasing To Yellows In Washington

OFFENSIVE TO JAPAN

New Alien Bill Not Liked by Washington Administration.

Washington, May 1.—The federal administration finds only negative cause for satisfaction in the latest alien bill introduced in the California legislature. The chief source of comfort lies in the fact that it might have turned out to be even so much worse. President Wilson wanted to induce the Californians to do one of two things, either to give up the plan to legislate men in favor of some action in the next two years by the federal government, or else to pass a bill of such a general character that the Japanese could find in it no ground for a charge of discrimination. Neither of these objects seems likely to be achieved unless the Californians undergo a radical change of spirit.

That the measure, if adopted, is going to bring forth resentment in Japan, is not at all doubted here.

This Looks Pretty Good For Starter In the Fight

FOR EQUAL SUFFRAGE

Senate Committee Will Submit a Favorable Report.

Washington, May 1.—A favorable report will be made in the senate at this session on a resolution submitting an amendment to the federal constitution granting suffrage to women. It will be the first time such legislation has been before congress in many years which will have had a favorable report by a committee. Favorable action by the senate committee was foreshadowed clearly at the time the personnel of the new committee was announced, when the senate was reorganized. After a long struggle the committee was made up of senators favorable to equal suffrage.

Albany, May 1.—Governor Sulzer's statewide direct nominations bill, which abolishes party state conventions, was defeated in the state senate when it came up for final passage by a vote of 8 to 42. Every one of the 50 senators voted.

Something New for The Senators To Grapple

CONTEMPT CASE IN SENATE

Chief Witness Against Archbald Says He Has Been Punished.

Washington, May 1.—The senate may be called on to consider a case of contempt growing out of the impeachment of Judge Robert W. Archbald of the United States commerce court. Willa P. Boland of Scranton, Pa., who was the chief complaining witness against Judge Archbald, has been in Washington two days and has interviewed several senators and laid before them statements which he claims tend to prove that he has been "punished" as a shipper by some of the railroads on account of the testimony he gave in the Archbald trial.

If it can be shown the railroads have been seeking reprisals on Boland as a shipper because of his testimony, it will be a case of contempt, and it is said the senate will promptly fix responsibility and mete out punishment.

OHIO HAPPENINGS

Deny Injustice Done Laborers.

Dayton, O., May 1.—City and relief authorities were much exercised over the story from Chicago that 150 men, who had arrived there, had been driven from Dayton as undesirable. They deny that injustice could have been done them except in a few unavoidable instances. "The action of the authorities was taken to rid the city of imported laborers who became intoxicated and continued unfit and unwilling to work" is the statement of city officials.

Steubenville, O., May 1.—W. C. Brown was one of those indicted for violation of the act.

"Dips" Get Big Roll.

FEARFUL WRECK ON PENNSYLVANIA ROAD NARROWLY AVERTED

D. T. & I. Engineer and Cool Headed Target Man Prevent Horrible Catastrophe at South Charleston Crossing of the Two Roads, When Hobo Tamperers With Air Brake and Big Train Runs Wild.

Only the quick and cool headed action of a D. T. & I. engineer and the man in charge of the block system at the intersection of the Pennsylvania and D. T. & I. railroads at South Charleston, prevented one of the worst wrecks in the history of the Pennsylvania system Tuesday, when the west-bound double header Pennsylvania flyer No. 121 became unmanageable as the result of a hobo tampering with the air brakes, and ran wild at 60 miles an hour.

Dashing down grade at a rate of sixty miles or more, the heavy train approached South Charleston, and as it neared the point where the Pennsylvania tracks cross the D. T. & I. tracks, the engineers found the signal set against them, and it was not until then that they discovered to their horror that the air brakes would not work. Reversing the big engines, the engineers sounded frantic distress signals. Hearing the signals the engineer of a D. T. & I. train which had the right of way and was just pulling across the Penns tracks quickly reversed his engine and backed clear of the Penn tracks. The man in charge of the block system, instantly realizing the danger, saw the D. T. & I. train clear the Penn tracks and he then shifted the derailer and gave the runaway Penn train a clear track. The plunging, sliding engines with a long string of uncontrolled coaches pushing them along from behind, were within a few inches of the derailer when it was shifted, thus saving the train from being ditched. The heavy train ran a long way down the tracks before it was brought to a halt. Beyond some flattened wheels on the engines no damage was done.

Charles Hunter, a hobo, who was stealing a ride on the Pennsylvania train, was the cause of the trouble, and he is now under arrest. He was clinging to the train between the tender and the first mail car, and desiring to get off at South Charleston, he turned an air valve, connecting the engines with the long string of cars, thinking he could stop the train in that manner. This action completely cut off the air and rendered the engineers unable to apply the air brakes.

When the train came to a halt, the hobo, was seen to slip from his seat between the tender and mail car and attempt to escape. Train men captured him and removed him to Xenia where he spent the night. In jail Wednesday morning he was taken to South Charleston by railway Detective Litchfield, where he will be placed on trial. The offense with which he is charged is punishable with imprisonment in the penitentiary. Had it not been for the quick work of the railroad men, the thoughtless act of the hobo would probably have caused the loss of many lives.

It was not until after the hobo was caught by the railroad men and an investigation made, that the cause of the trouble was discovered. Had the train been ditched, the cause of the accident would probably never have been discovered as is the case in many wrecks. The hobo who turned the air valve would undoubtedly have been killed had the train been wrecked, and it would never have been known that the air brakes had been tampered with.

A Tourist.
A jaded traveller I am.
So often have I strayed from home;
I've seen the sights of Rotterdam,
I've seen what is worth while in Rome,
I've seen what Paris offers you.
In old Madrid I've strolled a while,
Of Turkey I have had a view.
I've wandered up and down the Nile.

Through German cities of renown
My way I've taken frequently;
I've been all over London town,
And all at slight expense to me.
To see the places I have seen,
To go where every tourist goes
I've glued my eyes upon the screen
At many moving picture shows!

Voliva Loses Out in Zion City Election

Wilbur Glenn Voliva, head of the Christian Catholic church at Zion City, former pastor of the Christian church in this city, and successor to Alexander Dowie, yesterday lost the reins of government of the city by a canvass of votes cast at the city election April 15.

Following the report of the committee, William Hurd Clendennin, who was counted out as Mayor, called on all followers of Voliva to leave the City Hall, which they did.

The result of the city election when first announced showed that Clendennin had been elected Mayor, and the entire Theocratic ticket, fostered by Voliva, had been successful over the Independent factions.

All ballots which were cast in the Second and Fourth wards were thrown out by the committee, the report stating they had been tampered with. These two wards cast a large majority in favor of Voliva's ticket.

MESSAGE HIDDEN 15 YEARS AGO IS FOUND

Son When Small Boy Hid It to Save Mother's Feelings.

Menasha, Wis.—Young Stephen Brown, whose family moved away from Wisconsin fifteen years ago, recently came back to his old home in Neenah on a visit.

He requested the young man with whom he was staying to take a walk with him to the lake shore.

The friend thought the road was rather muddy, but went without comment.

When the men arrived at a certain spot Brown turned over a large stone, looked eagerly under it and exclaimed in a low voice: "By George, here it is!"

He drew out a moldy, wet, discolored envelope, evidently containing a telegram.

The paper within bore this message, most of which was obliterated, but a few words could be deciphered here and there: "Wallace Brown died last night at midnight."

It was sent from Detroit and bore a date fifteen years old.

The young man's eyes moist with tears as he told his friend the story of the telegram.

Fifteen years before Brown's father had died suddenly, while in Detroit on business. The telegram, announcing his death came while Mrs. Brown was away from the house and the boy, then a little child, opened and read it.

With some childish idea of saving his mother from the distress he knew the message would cause her he ran as fast as he could and hid the telegram under a stone and did not tell of its arrival.

He remembered that his mother faintly when she heard the news later and died a few months afterward, leaving him and his brother friendless orphans.

He had forgotten all about the telegram until his first visit to his old home recalled it to mind, and the tears came often as he recounted forgotten memories resurrected at the sight of that moldewed paper.

"DOWN AND OUTERS" HOTEL.

Banker to Erect $100,000 Structure as Memorial to Son.

Chicago—A hotel for "down and out" men, to cost $100,000, will be erected by Charles G. Dawes, president of the Central Trust company of Illinois as a memorial to his son, Rufus Fearing Dawes, who was drowned in Lake Greva on Sept. 5, 1912. Eventually Mr. Dawes will erect a similar refuge for women of the same class.

These hotels had been projects which the father and son had planned to carry out together, and Mr. Dawes pledged himself to devote all his spare time to carrying out the work his son had long looked forward to.

"Lodging will be furnished at cost, not to exceed 5 cents," said Mr. Dawes. "The doors of this hotel will never be closed to those out of employment. All we ask is that they promise to pay when they find work again. It will extend credit to the unfortunate upon their promise alone. A free employment agency will be run in connection with the hotel."

"My boy was greatly interested in the Y. M. C. A., and the idea of this work was originally suggested by that being done by the Bowery Y. M. C. A. of New York city."

OUTPOINTS MORGAN

Luther McCarty in a Stiff Ten-Round Argument in New York.

New York, May 1.—In the presence of a crowded house at the St. Nicholas Athletic club Luther McCarty proved that he still is far removed from the heavyweight championship pedestal. McCarty outpointed Frank Moran of Pittsburg, but the latter not only stayed the 10-round limit, but also put up a stubborn argument. It was not until the last round that Moran was in serious trouble. He staggered from the force of several well-directed punches, but rallied with great pluck and was fighting desperately at the bell. BARRICADED HIMSELF IN DARK ATTIC WHERE OFFICERS ARREST HIM

Insane Man Residing at Book-walter Lived in Windowless Attic Like Wild Beast in Its Lair, and Sheriff Tears Away Weatherboarding to Get Into Foul Place Where the Man Existed.

Barricaded in the dark, windowless attic at his home in Book-walter, is where Sheriff O. Nelson and Deputy Sheriff A. C. Nelson found George W. Loveless Wednesday evening when they arrived in the village. In response to a call to remove the man and have him tried for lunacy.

When the two officers arrived they were informed that the man was in the attic and would not come down, and that the only means of reaching the attic was by way of a chair and the kitchen cupboard which Loveless had been using in lieu of a ladder.

When ordered to come down the man refused to do so, and the two officers secured a ladder and pried several boards loose from the ends of the house, permitting the light to enter the foul retreat of the crazed man. Then he begged for the officers not to hurt him, and promised

Big Four Train Wrecked Today

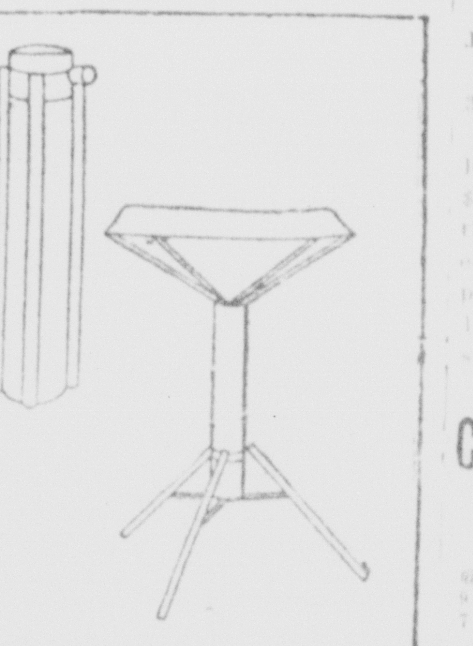

Special to Herald.
Middletown, Ohio, May 1.—Eleven persons were injured, two perhaps fatally, when a big four passenger train left the rails near here today, at a point where the flood had damaged the road bed.

CHAIR SLIPS INTO POCKET.

When Folded It Is Not Much Bigger Than a Fountain Pen.

A chair which folds into a shape not much larger than a fountain pen has just been designed as a bit of automobile accessory but it will be also found useful for many other purposes and occasions. It is often desirable to crowd an extra passenger or two into an automobile when the path being traversed is hard and level, and so the chair shown in the accompanying cut was designed. When not in use it is collapsed and can be stowed away in a corner where it is entirely out of the way, or if desired, it may be carried in the pocket. When called into active service its strength is assured by reason of the fact that it is made of metal.

It is adjustable to heights of four, six, eight and ten inches, has a swivel top, heavy canvas seat twelve inches square, is made of malleable iron and steel with nickel-plated and black enamel finish and weighs complete less than two pounds. When folded it measures only nine inches in length by two inches in diameter and can be easily carried in the pocket.

The Smallest Folding Chair.

It is built to sustain a weight of 100 pounds and its compact form makes it especially serviceable for use in motor boats, camping excursions, sketching, etc.—Washington Star.
